II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

What is the basis for federal court jurisdiction? (check all that apply)

Fill out the paragraphs in this section that apply to this case.

A. If the Basis for Jurisdiction Is a Federal Question

List the specific federal statutes, federal treaties, and/or provisions of the United States Constitution that are at issue in this case.

III. Statement of Claim

Write a short and plain statement of the claim. Do not make legal arguments. State as briefly as possible the facts showing that each plaintiff is entitled to the damages or other relief sought. State how each defendant was involved and what each defendant did that caused the plaintiff harm or violated the plaintiff's rights, including the dates and places of that involvement or conduct. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed.

Comes Now, Starsha Sewell, M.ED., Pro Se with her complaint showing this court that the Court of Special Appeals, The Court of Appeals and the Prince George's County Circuit Court has yet again established through collective actions filed by Sewell, African American, Christian Woman; that her rights cannot be enforced in the State of Maryland due to its vested interest in concealing Mortgage Fraud of Tom Dore, et.al, Universal Title, and Fidelity National Financial. On or About September 18, 2012, this court remanded an action containing civil and domestic elements involving the Plaintiff in this action, who was the Defendant in both State actions at issue, which were properly removed from the State of Maryland before this court, but were remanded to the State Courts under a statute that is only applicable to civil actions; and is not at all relevant to Civil Rights Actions removed from the State of Maryland under 28 USC 1443.

With this, the Plaintiff now files her complaint reopening this action to be heard under the appropriate statute; primarily because the Court of Special Appeals, The Court of Appeals and the Prince George's County Circuit Court has established its intent to engage in RICO Act obstructions of Justice in Matters filed by the Plaintiff, because they are clearly racially prejudice towards the Plaintiff and also, because they have a vested interest in concealing mortgage fraud of the Maryland Community Development and Housing Administration who engaged in the theft of the Plaintiff's property utilizing the judicial machinery five months after the Plaintiff's Lender was forfeited by the State of Maryland. - See Exhibits A, B & C.

IV. Relief

State briefly and precisely what damages or other relief the plaintiff asks the court to order. Do not make legal arguments. Include any basis for claiming that the wrongs alleged are continuing at the present time. Include the amounts of any actual damages claimed for the acts alleged and the basis for these amounts. Include any punitive or exemplary damages claimed, the amounts, and the reasons you claim you are entitled to actual or punitive money damages. For any request for injunctive relief, explain why monetary damages at a later time would not adequately compensate you for the injuries you sustained, are sustaining, or will sustain as a result of the events described above, or why such compensation could not be measured.

I want my civil rights action to be heard under 28 USC 1443 on the basis that I am the Defendant in this action and my rights cannot be enforced in the State due to Fraud Concealment & Racial Injustice.
